The featured artist at the Amherst Library for the month of September will be Mary Graham. She has lived in Maine for thirteen years, with Sharon Yates in Canada and spent ten years studying with New Hampshire artist Solih Will. Graham is a member of the Copley Society of Boston and the Sharan Arts Center in Peterborough. You can view her paintings at www.jaffreyciviccenter.com/campbell.

Raff Campbell is a watercolorist, he loves seascapes. As he uses colored pencils, he is drawn to the incredible subtlety of light and shadow in his work. As he grows older he is drawn to the incredible landscape he finds in the New Hampshire countryside. Campbell was awarded a month-long artist’s residency in Dinan, France and also held a residency in New Ipswich, with Sharon Yates in Canada and spent ten years studying with New Hampshire artist Solih Will. Graham is a member of the Copley Society of Boston and the Sharan Arts Center in Peterborough. You can view her paintings at www.jaffreyciviccenter.com/campbell.

The Good Doctor is a comedy with music in two acts is one of Neil Simon’s many successful comedies. Broadway’s master of comedy, Neil Simon, expertly weaves a variety of Anton Chekhov short stories into a laugh-out-loud evening that is heart-warming, hilarious, and just what the doctor ordered.

The cast of characters includes a writer, a blustering general, a lady of the night, a wild woman with a nervous disorder, a man who earns money by “diverting,” a newsman, an evangelist and others all brought to life by the small and somewhat eccentric cast.
