Our selection this month is The Art Forger by B.A. Shapiro

Boston painter Claire Roth has survived financially by painting reproductions, so when influential gallery owner Aiden Markel arrives with a bizarre proposal—her own show if she will forge a copy of a Degas, one of the pictures stolen from the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum—she says yes. As she works, Claire and Aiden become lovers, but she doesn't tell him about her discovery that the stolen Degas is itself a copy. This knowledge is Claire's lifeline when the finished forgery is discovered, Aiden and then Claire are both arrested, and only she can save them. Books are available at the Circulation Desk. All are welcome.

Paws to Read 10:30 - noon

Read to a DOG? Not just any dog...

Certified Therapy Pets are a wonderful way to encourage reluctant readers and children having difficulties with reading to become more confident in their ability to read. The use of Therapy Pets in hospitals, rehabilitation centers and nursing homes has been shown to decrease anxiety, lower blood pressure and promote relaxation; the same premise applies to children with reading difficulties.

For those children who cannot yet read on their own, parents & caregivers are invited to read with their children. In order to guarantee your spot, you must register for each session.

Registered children should arrive during the advertised time span and will read to the dog of their choice for approximately 15-20 mins.

Check our online calendar for upcoming dates & times.

Ben and Jerry

We're Ben and Jerry...you see what we did there? We are trying to draw all of you ice cream lovers in with our name. We're just as awesome. You see, we're brothers, and we are in desperate need of finding a home that will take us both.

We're both 6 years old, neutered and healthy. We're very laid back; a little shy at times, but overall quite gentle and sweet. Unfortunately, we ended up here because our mom ended up in an assisted living facility, and we couldn't go with her. She loved us more than anything and took great care of us. We miss her a lot. We'd love just a quiet home, we could potentially live with other cats or even a quiet older dog, but really we just need someone to give us time to adjust. We're an easy pair, and have a lot of love to give. Consider us. Please.

My name is Tigger, and I'm on the prowl for a new family. I am a big guy with lots to offer. I am 7 years young and have a lot of life left. I like to scope out people before letting them pet me, but once I come to you, everything is good! I am affectionate and enjoy my head and cheeks scratched. I'm not so much a lap cat, but I do enjoy sitting next to you. I came to the shelter because my original owner's health was declining and she couldn't care for me anymore. I've lived with other cats, and they are alright. I don't like to share my food though, so if they approach while I'm eating I will bat them on the head. The great thing about me is that though I like having attention, I'm also quite independent, so if you work long hours I can keep myself entertained, especially if you have a sunny window to look out. I'm not too sure about young kids, or dogs, but if they are respectful, I'm sure it could work.
