Art Exhibit Titled "Color In and Out" at East Colony Fine Art

Featuring Oil Paintings by Jackie Cunningham and Casein paintings by Priscilla Levesque

MANCHESTER – "Color In and Out" will exhibit from November 25 thru December 27 with the Opening Reception on Friday, December 5, 5-7pm.

Jackie's work is representational and her main focus is on beauty and making people smile when they view her work. Her inspirations come from textures and "aromas". She loves to paint flowers until you can smell them or take you for a walk on a sunny day through a sunny pasture and smell the fresh air. "Mostly it is the local color of my subject and the lovely touch of its complementary color that gets me excited." Sometimes everything else is put aside so she can paint the subject, at that very moment then and there.

Priscilla's inspiration is the landscapes by 19th century artists such as Pissarro, Seurat, Signac, Luce and others who used the pointillist technique in their paintings. She finds it challenging to create optical mixtures by juxtaposing small dots of numerous colors which, when viewed at a distance, appear to merge into one color.

She works in transparent watercolor and also casein, which is an opaque water-based paint. An advantage of opaque paint is the ease of making revisions and altering colors. Whenever she feels that an area is too dark, she can cover it with a lighter color because casein dries rapidly. She usually begins a painting with a watercolor underpainting and then works over it with casein, applying pointillist dots.

Join Jackie and Priscilla at their reception for "Color – In and Out" on Friday, December 5, 5-7pm. Jackie will share her inspirational stories on color, and Priscilla will offer more insight in working with casein.

The NH Phil Holiday Pops Concert

DERRY -- The NH Philharmonic, joined by the Pinkerton Academy student choir, celebrates the winter season with the Holiday Pops.

From Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker and Strauss's Tales from the Vienna Woods to Anderson's Sleigh Ride, the music will put listeners in the mood for the holiday season. The program will also include a delightful arrangement of Russian Christmas music and an up-and-coming piece by Larisa Kuzmenko, a Toronto-based composer and pianist.

The youthful choristers of Pinkerton Academy will join the NH Phil for a selection of music for chorus and orchestra.

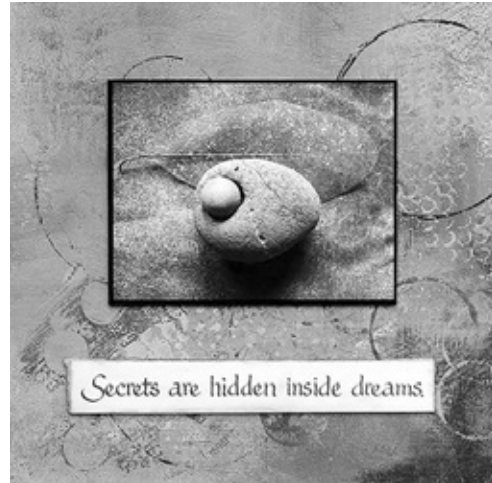

Leading the orchestra is Music Director Mark Latham. He received his musical training at the Guildhall School (London), Philadelphia College of Performing Arts, Brooklyn College Conservatory, and the University of Michigan. He trained in violin and chamber music at Eastman, Juilliard, Aspen Music Festival and Banff Festival. A keen advocate of the music of our times, Latham has given numerous world premieres both as conductor and violinist.

The concert takes place on November 29 at 7:30 p.m. at the Stockbridge Theatre Manchester. Tickets are available through the Stockbridge Theatre box office at 437-5210, or online at www.stockbridgetheatre.com. Standard ticket prices range from $12- $50, with discounts available for seniors. Students from Elementary-College are now $5. Complete information about the 110th season of the New Hampshire Philharmonic can be found at www.nhphil.org.

Jaffrey Civic Center Art Exhibit and Sale

"A Streak of Sunshine" acrylic by Teena Keefe of Keene, NH

"Red Sock", oil by Jan Mercuri Grossman of Amherst, NH

Off The Wall Gems

Annual Autumn Area Art Exhibit

The Jaffrey Civic Center proudly announces the final exhibit for the year. The photography portion is in the first floor Auditorium Gallery and the works of the 138 pieces of many mediums are in the second floor Cunningham Gallery. This is our largest grouping of artwork for the 2014 year and comprises of two and three dimensional representations from artists primarily of the area.

Since some of the artists works are for sale, there is an unusual opportunity to Christmas shop for a special gift. You won't find this variety of talent in any store!

The show will run until December 20, 2014

The Jaffrey Civic Center is located at 40 Main Street, Jaffrey, New Hampshire, next to Library, parking in rear. For more information, call 532-6527, e-mail us at jaffreycntr@aol.com, find our website, www.jaffreyciviccenter.com

In August many artist friends of the Jaffrey Civic Center donated artwork for our one night fundraiser called "Off the Wall". By popular demand we are offering an opportunity to buy beautiful and interesting pieces of art work in the first floor Display Cases from Friday, November 14 through Thursday, December 18.

What's unique about this offering? Each piece is 5" x 7", not signed on the front, not framed, and only $60. And here's the topping on the cake... if you buy three, you get one free! Come in and leave with what you buy... first come, first serve.
