Amherst Police Officer in 6th Year Skating for CHaD

AMHERST – On Saturday, April 11th, police officer and fire fighter hockey players from all parts of New Hampshire will join together in competition at the Verizon Wireless Arena for the 8th Annual CHaD Battle of the Badges Hockey Championship. Police officers and firefighters bring their passion and skills to the ice in this highly competitive game of “Good vs. Good” in support of the vital programs and services provided by the Children’s Hospital at Dartmouth-Hitchcock. The event has raised more than one million dollars over the last seven years, and last year’s event alone drew more than 7,000 spectators and raised $233,000.

Officer, Kevin Kelly helps raise funds for CHaD

The Amherst Police Department’s Officer Kevin Kelly will be skating for his sixth year in the event. Last year, Officer Kelly raised nearly $3,000 in donations and scored a goal and an assist to help Team Police defeat Team Fire in a 5-4 victory. Each police officer and firefighter is tasked with raising at least $1,500 in pledge support for the charity, and Officer Kelly is working diligently to break the $3,000 mark this year.

The 8th Annual CHaD Battle of the Badges Hockey Championship will be begin at 5:00 pm on April 11th at the Verizon Wireless Arena in Manchester. For more information on this event, or to donate your pledge of support toward this worthy cause, please contact Officer Kevin Kelly at kkelly@amherst-nh.gov.

Remembering Josh

AMHERST – For his ninth birthday, Joshua Savyon asked for donations to the animal shelter instead of presents for himself. He also took his birthday money that he had received and purchased items for the shelter. Sadly, that was Josh’s last birthday. To honor and remember him, the students at all three Amherst schools are going to carry on this tradition in his name. They will be collecting items for the Animal Rescue League in Bedford at all of the schools, and at the Amherst Town Library. The donations will be delivered to The Animal Rescue League in Bedford on April 10th, Josh’s birthday. If you would like to help us remember Josh, you can drop off items at any of the schools. Financial donations can also be made at the school office at Wilkins. Please go to the Animal Rescue League’s website for a list of needed items, at www.rescueleague.org. Thank you for helping us remember Josh.
