The New England Brass Comes to Souhegan High School for Chamber Music Night

AMHERST – The New England Brass will be the featured performers at the 1st annual SHS Chamber Music Night on April 22nd at 7:00pm. Under the management of New England Musical Artists, the NE Brass has been performing to enthusiastic audiences since 1980. Specializing in family and adult concerts as well as elementary school concerts, their programs feature versatility along with outstanding musicianship and they have long established a solid position among the finest performing brass chamber groups in the country. The NEB is directed by trumpeter Jay Daly. For over 30 years Jay's soaring lead trumpet has been a mainstay of Boston's diverse music venues. From Symphony Hall to the Colonial Theater, from the Boston Opera House to Tanglewood, from the Tweeter Center to the Bank of Boston Pavilion, he has endeared himself to audiences and fellow musicians alike as "one of the most versatile trumpet players in the Boston area," in the words of the Boston Globe.

Jay is a favorite with touring star attractions. His talents have been tapped by the likes of Frank Sinatra, Mel Torme, Tony Bennett, Johnny Mathis, Natalie Cole, Linda Rondstadt, the Moody Blues, and others too numerous to mention. He is also frequently called on to play for Boston and Providence runs of touring Broadway shows, most recently Wicked, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, and Spamalot. In addition Jay is lead trumpet and contractor for the North Shore Music Theater, one of the finest regional theaters in the country.

The New England Brass will be joined by chamber ensembles from Souhegan High School. General admission at the door is "Pay What You Want". Suggested donation is $5.00. For more information, please go to: newenglandbrass.com or contact Carl Benevides at cbenevides@sprise.com.

Amherst Garden Club's Annual Plant Sale, May 9

Amherst Garden Club members Marti Warren and Sue Spiess display a painting by well known artist, Marianne Stillwagon. Marianne resided in Amherst for 37 years and now lives in Hillsborough Center with her husband, Leon, and their Welsh Terrier, Jack. One of Marianne's prints, 'Country Christmas' was featured on the QVC gallery in 1995 and she has done custom artwork for The Orvis Catalog. This beautiful 1984 rendition of Amherst village is titled 'Our Town' and will be raffled at the upcoming Amherst Garden Club Plant Sale at Wilkins School on May 9, 2015.
